MARIANHILL CENTRAL CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

“It is above all a clear principle of wisdom that all progress is truly such if it knows how to add new conquests to old, to join new benefits to those acquired in the past — in a word, if it knows how to make capital out of experience.”

Pope Pius XII

Volume One

U.S. AMBASSADOR Arthur J. Goldberg called on Pope Paul VI on a special mission from President Johnson regarding the war in Viet-Nam. The meeting took place in New York during the Pope's visit to the U.S. Looking on is U.N. Protocol Chief Pierre de Meulemester.

Pope presses peace appeal

"WILL THE WORLD ONE DAY UNDERSTAND the profound and unique relationship between these two words — Christ and Peace?" Pope Paul VI, sitting at his desk, broadcasts a message to the leaders involved in the Viet-Nam war, in which he outlined specific premises on which a "just and lasting" peace should be based.

BISHOP BERNARD J. FLANAGAN, with St. Paul's Cathedral in the background, proclaims the period between January 1 and May 29, 1966, to be a period of Jubilee in the Diocese of Worcester. Celebration centered around Cathedral Church whose first claim to honor is that it houses the bishop's chair or 'cathedra.' Its purpose, as Bishop points out, would be "to offer public thanks to Almighty God for the gifts He has bestowed on the Church, to offer the faithful a special opportunity of increased grace, and to bring about that renewal to which the Council was directed in the domestic, public and social life of us all."

LYNDON B. JOHNSON — 36th PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

"... I say that every child has the right to as much education as she or he has the ability to take. I want this for our children's sake, but I also want it for our nation's sake, because nothing can mean more to the future of America."

Our Headmaster

Rev. J. Paul Charpentier

PRIEST — TEACHER — FRIEND — all these, and more, we found embodied in our headmaster. To you, Father, we pledge unswerving loyalty to the truths you taught us.

For the correctness of the record and the respect in which they are held as administrators and assistants, in a word, as the team responsible for the smooth running of our school, we have labeled each of these pictures somewhat formally; however, we shall never be able to refer to them except by the more intimate titles of "Father Paul", "Sister Mary", and "Mrs. A."

MRS. ERNEST J. ARCHAMBEAULT

THESE ARE the mothers to whom we shall always be grateful for their patience with us, their generosity and kindness — Mrs. A. Bellerive, Mrs. A. Silverstri, Mrs. A. Tiberii and Mrs. E. McNally.

Service with a smile!

"IF YOU DON'T SEE IT, ask for it," is the slogan of these enterprising sophomores, J. LaRiviere, J. Bibeau, R. Pilote, A. Proulx, N. Para, J. Poirier and L. Committo.

THESE TWO BUDDIES, Emile A. Miller and Peter G. Poirier are more often seen keeping our school clean but they do countless other favors for us such as mailing parcels, closing windows, turning off lights we have forgotten, chaperoning at dances, to mention only a few services for which they have earned from us a sincere "THANK YOU."

QUEEN'S COURT

L. Cyr, J. McNerney, M. Gibeault, Queen, L. Roy and S. Richer.

LEADING GRAND MARCH are Judy Donais and escort, Leo Farrand.

BEFORE AND AFTER choosing the Queen and her court.

Senior Trips

Whether our trips took us to Mt. Snow or New York, it was always the good fellowship of our classmates and the company of our teachers and parents that made each outing an experience filled with pleasure.

Senior Memories

These pictures, beginning with Senior Night through Graduation Mass in the exquisite setting of Notre Dame Church where beauty, reverence and dignity prevailed, then on to Rom's for Communion Breakfast made meaningful by the presence of our parents and teachers, trace more effectively than words the happiness tinged with a bit of sadness that each of these gatherings afforded us.

ISN'T IT STRANGE? Our diploma doesn't give us the feeling of freedom we expected.

We didn't feel this way at rehearsal. I wonder why?

Mixed Emotions

That's a dainty curtsy, Jean.

Let's Be Nonchalant!

Our names look so important in that beautiful script!

Fr. Paul and Lt. Moser are so consoling!

Teachers are so human on these occasions!

Man the lifeboats!

GRINS ALL AROUND. Must be the strong section of the class. (Wasn't Mr. Morin clever to film Mrs. Moran so as to give her such stunning and appropriate millinery?)

THE SERVANT FAMILY is well represented by Roland, Christine, George and Suzanne who take reluctant leave of Marianhill.

Father Paul's Address to the Graduates at Communion Breakfast

"The world opens forth with her arms enfolding." These words of your very beautiful class song express adequately my feelings and hopes for each of you as you stand on the threshold of a great experience as the very mystery of life with its inevitable triumphs and disasters — tears and smiles awaits you.

On this day the world welcomes you as young adults as you take on adult responsibilities. There is a note of sadness amidst the great joy of this day for the past is memory and the future is a mystery.

I am very pleased to have this last opportunity to speak to you and to be with you. Having shared your joys and sorrows, your triumphs and failures, your hopes and dreams, I feel that, in reality, I am a member of your class.

Together we have made history in our Church and school system; you have made, by your contributions of time and effort, a reality of MARIAN-HILL. You are the first alumni of this new school and we expect you will justify our pride and expectations.

What message can I leave you, since we have spent a whole year sharing each other's thoughts and knowledge? The answer to this question is not simple, but I do have a dream which I would hope will be your vision of tomorrow.

It was the prophet Joel who said, "In those days your old men shall dream dreams and your young men shall have visions." Well, I am not old but I claim the prerogative of dreaming on this morning above all, and you in turn have the right and the power to make my dream your vision.

It should be a bright, optimistic picture for your lives are before you. Our visions have faded and it is our turn to dream dreams and these dreams are of you and for you.

For I have a dream, a dream that encompasses the marvels of space and technology from the earth to the moon. From the launch-pads of Cape Kennedy to the very stars — I have a dream of a better world of breathless beauty and wonderment. From the hills of New England to the sandy beaches of California, I have a dream of your generation conquering this mighty land and expanding its potential. I have a dream of a brand new tomorrow, from the lush jungles of Viet-Nam to the expanses of China and Asia, where sound of love rings true and the clashing of metal ceases its hated sound of death, suffering and man's inhumanity to man.

I have a dream — a dream of a world at peace — one in which you have built the city of brotherly love and the city of God.

From North to South, East to West I have a dream of civil peace where discord is no more and white and colored sit side by side in friendship and in peace.

From the halls of MARIANHILL to wherever you may be, I have a dream of you as the builders of this dream. The task is not an easy one. The burden is heavy but it is not impossible. As you labor to make my dream your vision and your vision reality, several important qualities will be needed to fulfill these dreams and visions. COURAGE — the courage to be different. FAITH — faith born of love of neighbor.

Lastly, I have a dream of all of us sharing God's love in the heavenly Jerusalem where strife is no more and every tear is wiped away and each of us shares the golden joy of God's Eternity.

In bidding you farewell, I implore God's choicest graces for you and I thank you for having given me the pleasure of knowing you and the privilege of guiding you. My office door is always open to each of you. God love and bless you. "For in those days your old men shall dream dreams and your young men shall have visions."
